DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

Claims 11,13,14,16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Griebat et al '165. This patent discloses process and apparatus for treating grain including cleaning followed by degerminating/seeding; note particularly claim 4, lines 4-5 and column 5, lines 23-24.

Claims 17-25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Salete-Gaarces '455. This patent shows apparatus to husk and degerminate/seed grains including projections on both a rotor and a stator, the rotor including venting holes.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

Claim 15 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Griebat et al '165. The elimination of known steps, i.e. intermediate sifting, would have been obvious to one skilled in the art if it were not desired to extract the intermediate sized product.

Claim 12 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Griebat et al '165 in view of Salete-Graces '455. Griebat et al does not use a rotor/stator combination having projections which may result in inefficient husking. Salete-Graces '455 solves this problem by disclosing similar process including the use of projections on the rotor/stator. In order to efficiently husk the material, it would have been obvious for one of ordinary skill in the art to modify Griebat et al by using a rotor/stator combination with projections, taught to be desirable by Salete-Garces '455.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 1/15/08 concerning the above rejections have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. It is first noted that contrary to applicant's remarks, claim 16 is an independent claim, not a dependent claim so that its patentability does not stand or fall with independent claim 11.

The examiner disagrees with applicant's interpretation of the Griebat et al '165 patent disclosure. Column 5, lines 23-60 state that the grains are cleaned and then degerminated/seeded. This alone meets the subject matter of claim 16. The patent continues by stating that the seeded grains are then aspirated (lines 45-47) and fed to break rolls. This meets the limitation of 'directly milling the aspirated seeds..' that applicant argues for the independent claim 11.

The comments about Salete-Garces '455 are simply in error. Members 91 do extend parallel to the rotational axis; see particularly figures 5 and 6. This meets the subject matter of the claims rejected by this patent.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
